

Home > Statutory out-of-home care and adoption > Accreditation
e-Newsletter

Newsletter

The accreditation newsletter will provide information on the OCG's Accreditation and Monitoring team as well as current sector trends, activities of the team and an update on current legislative and compliance requirements.

Accreditation and monitoring e-newsletter - November 2019

In this edition - the new Children's Guardian legislation and transfer of the Reportable Conduct Scheme, progress of the residential care workers register, and more.

Accreditation and monitoring e-newsletter – December 2018

Welcome to the Office of the Children's Guardian's Accreditation and Monitoring team e-newsletter, edition seven. This newsletter provides information on the Accreditation and Monitoring team as well as current sector trends, activities of the team and an update on current legislative and compliance requirements.

Accreditation and monitoring e-newsletter – August 2018

Welcome to the Accreditation and Monitoring team's e-newsletter, number 6. In this edition: complying with the Carers Register, recent changes to the Working With Children Check that affect you, our new office location and more.

Accreditation newsletter - September 2017

In this edition: Permanency planning, reportable allegations, record keeping and cloud-based technologies, along with updates on voluntary out-of home care and the NSW Carers Register

Accreditation and monitoring e-newsletter - December 2016

Welcome to the fourth Office of the Children's Guardian Accreditation and Monitoring team e-newsletter. This newsletter provides information about our activities as well as information about sector trends and an update of current legislative and compliance requirements.

Accreditation e-newsletter June 2016 ()

New Standards, new conditions of accreditation for designated agencies, psychotropic medications and more

View e-News

Accreditation and Monitoring e-Newsletter - December 2015 ()

NSW Child Safe Standards for Permanent Care launched. A new process introduced for the placement of children under 12 years in residential care. Stats and info on the Carers Register - and more.

View e-News

Accreditation and Monitoring e-newsletter - September 2015 ()
This is the first edition of the Accreditation and Monitoring e-newsletter. The e-newsletter will provide information on the OCG's Accreditation and Monitoring team as well as current sector trends, activities of the team and an update on current legislative and compliance requirements. Key topics in this first edition relate to some of the legislative requirements for all designated agencies in NSW in relation to the provision of statutory OOHC.

View e-News
