

Risk Levels
Low risk	Risks which may be managed by routine procedures
Medium risk	Risks which need attention and interventions put in place
High risk	Risks which need urgent attention, require further investigation and need significant interventions put in place

This is an example of a risk rating table and is a guide only.*